

2009 VIVEK GOEL FACULTY CITIZENSHIP AWARD

The University of Toronto Alumni Association (UTAA) is pleased to accept nominations for the 2009 Vivek Goel Faculty Citizenship Award. This award will recognize a faculty member who has served the University of Toronto with distinction in multiple leadership capacities in diverse spheres over many years. The intended recipient of this award is an exemplary university citizen and a senior member of the faculty. The award will focus on individuals who have sustained a record of contributions in varied capacities as outlined in the selection criteria below. (Please note that a nominee's research record is not pertinent to this award.)

The award recipient will be honoured at the Awards of Excellence ceremony on Monday, May 4, 2009.

HISTORY OF THE AWARD

The Vivek Goel Faculty Citizenship Award was created on the occasion of Vivek Goel's departure from his role as Vice-President and Provost of the University of Toronto in 2008. This award honours his many contributions to the University.

SELECTION CRITERIA

In making its decision, candidates will be evaluated by the Selection Committee based on the following criteria:

- Individuals who have sustained a record of contributions in varied administrative capacities and/or multiple committees at the departmental, divisional or university-wide level; or as a University of Toronto representative with external organizations; or, in a leadership capacity with external organizations doing work complementary to the university's academic mission, or with internal organizations such as the Faculty Association.

Please note that individuals currently serving in major academic administrative roles (Chairs, Deans, Principals, and appointees in the central administrations at the Vice-Provost level or above) are ineligible.

NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

A complete nomination package for the Vivek Goel Award must include the following:

- Completed nomination form
- Cover letter that addresses the selection criteria outlined above
- Cover letter must be supported by ten (10) signatures, one of which must be the signature of the Chair, Academic Director, Dean or Principal, as appropriate. Signatures, which may be internal or external, must be relevant to the nomination and reflect the affiliation and experiences of the candidate.
