Friday June 15, open 2 – 5 pm
Monday June 18, open 2 – 5 pm

We remember Lieutenant John Turner Howard who died 100 years ago today. In August 1916 he was appointed to the Canadian Engineers at Headquarters, Exhibition Camp, Toronto. He reached France in March 1918. On May 31 he was severely injured in a motor accident near Amiens. His right leg was amputated, and tetanus set in, to which he succumbed on June 18, 1918 at a British Red Cross Hospital.

Thursday June 21, open 2:30 – 5:30 pm
Wednesday June 27, open 2 – 5:30 pm

We remember Major Gustavius Mitchell Davis, Lieutenant Leonard Foster Jamieson, and Captain Arthur Vincent Leonard all of whom died 100 years ago today. Major Davis and Captain Leonard both served with the Canadian Army Medical Corps, they were attached to the hospital ship service. They were drowned at sea on June 27, 1918 when HMHS “Llandovery Castle” was sunk by an enemy submarine.

Lieutenant Jamieson served with the Royal Army Medical Corps in Alexandria, Palestine, in the capture of Jericho, the crossing of the Jordan and the raids on Es Sault. He had returned to Alexandria on sick leave, and he was accidentally drowned on June 2.

Carillon Recitals
