We remember Lieutenant Evan Edward Price who died 100 years ago. A former student at Trinity College, he enlisted at the age of 18 years. He went overseas in July 1916 and served on the Somme front. He was awarded the Military Cross for an action when he attacked a party of the enemy and dispersed it, taking many prisoners. Later he was awarded a Bar to the Cross for his courage and initiative on the Hindenberg line. He served at Passchendaele and Cambrai, and was later awarded the Distinguished Service Order. He was severely wounded before Amiens in March 1918 and being disabled from further service he was invalided home in October 1918. After an operation, he died on September 11, 1919, at the age of 21 years.
